Dear Mr. Meredith,
I just wanted to write to you and tell you how much I admire your personal courage in the difficult role which you are now playing. I believe very strongly that it is God's will that all people of the world - regardless of their colour, should live together in love and harmony - like the many hues of flowers make up a beautiful flower garden. You are one of the people who have been chosen to make this a reality — and I pray that racial harmony will be established without the degrading demonstrations of the past few years. It may well be, that all people must suffer before this becomes a reality, but I am convinced this day must come and will come.

Once again let me commend you on your personal integrity and courage.
As you, of course, are aware the ups and downs of the world are on you and I pray that you will be given the strength to carry out this most important "fight."

Good luck in your year.

Yours truly,
Beth Putters
(Mrs. John Putters)
